ALFA International Expands Its Membership in Florida with the Addition of McDonald Toole Richman & Correnti, P.A. in Orlando

ALFA International (ALFAI) is pleased to announce that McDonald Toole Richman & Correnti, P.A. (MTRC) has joined the ALFAI network as its member firm in Orlando, Florida, effective December 17, 2024.

MTRC has a dedicated team of skilled trial lawyers focused on handling complex, high-risk litigation while simultaneously assisting in more routine matters, with experience in product liability, transportation, medical malpractice, medical devices, premises liability and personal injury matters.

The firm has appointed Jessica Kennedy and Philip Kegler as its Contact Partners. The firm's members will actively participate in ALFA's Product Liability & Complex Torts and Transportation Practice Groups.

Jessica Kennedy expressed that her firm decided to join ALFAI because "ALFAI provides a prestigious network of lawyers, law firms and clients with the opportunity to connect and network, share knowledge and achieve successful outcomes."

ALFAI's CEO, Jessica Zaroski Bauer, remarked, "We chose MTRC to fill our Orlando vacancy based on the overwhelmingly positive feedback we've received from our current ALFAI clients. It became clear that the firm's philosophy of prioritizing clients' interests is genuinely reflected in their actions. We are elated to have this important membership jurisdiction covered by such a talented firm."
